Autism and STEM: Fostering Balanced and Inclusive Communities at School and at Work

Saturday, May 11, 2019
10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Bellevue College • 3000 Landerholm Cir SE • Bellevue, WA 98007

Stairway to STEM joins Bellevue College's RISE Learning Institute, STEM to Stern, and Autism Spectrum Navigators cohort programs to share exciting, relevant content for autistic high school and college students, as well as family members, educators, and professionals who support them.

STEM faculty and students will share best practices. Autistic educators will present on Preparing for Academic and Professional Success. A panel of Microsoft employees from their Autistic Community will join us to share about finding internal motivation and working with Executive Functioning, as well as answer questions from the audience!

Registration opens in February. Space is limited to 200 participants.
$25/$10 includes lunch for on-campus participants.
